BULBS * Price List for 1939

All the varieties listed herein should be planted between October first and December first for best results. Some of our Bulbs are imported direct from Holland, but wherever available, we are offering Franklin's Oregon-grown Bulbs which are superior to the imported varieties.

TULIPS

Cover about 4 inches deep and space 4 to 6 inches apart.

Single Early Tulips—These bloom out doors two to three weeks ahead of other Tulips. They are best for window boxes and for forcing.

Pink Beauty—Deep glowing rose.

De Wet—Yellow striped orange scarlet.

Keizerskroon—Scarlet with yellow margin.

Artus—Deep scarlet.

No. 1 grade 75c dozen—$5 per hundred.

DOUBLE EARLY TULIPS

Bloom immediately after Single Early varieties. Very showy.

Murillo—Rose pink.

Vuurbaak—Fiery orange-scarlet.

No. 1 grade 85c dozen.

Notice—Some Tulip varieties are available both in No. 1 and No. 2 grades. The No. 1 grades will produce a slightly larger bloom and are slightly earlier. However, the No. 2 bulbs give fine results for out-door planting. Varieties marked (*) can be had in both grades. Otherwise only No. 1 grade available.

DARWIN TULIPS

Darwin Tulips are the best known Tulips.

Baronne de la Tonnaye—Bright pink.

Clara Butt—Apple-blossom pink.

MAY FLOWERING COTTAGE TULIPS

These "lily-flowered" Tulips bloom at the same time as the Darwins and Breeders.

Dido—Rose-red and orange flowers.

Ellen Willmott—Large, beautifully formed creamy yellow.

Grenadier—Flame-orange with yellow base.

Picotee—White with rose margin.

Sirene—Lily-flowered, satiny carmine-rose. Prices same as Darwin tulips.

BREEDER TULIPS

Tall, stately varieties, blooming at time of Darwins. They include the "art" shades.

Bronze Queen—Clear bronze.

Prince of Orange—Orange.

Prof. Schtel—Fine lavender.

Dom Pedro—Coppery brown.

Prices same as Darwin Tulips.

PARROT TULIPS

These unusual Tulips have large flowers with deeply-slashed petals, oddly twisted and feathered petals.

Fantasy—A salmon-rose Parrot—75c dozen.

Mixed Parrot Tulips—75c dozen.

BOTANICAL TULIPS

These have smaller flowers than the other varieties listed. They are popular for rock gardens and borders.

Clusiana—Bright cherry red on outside of petals and creamy white inside—75c dozen.

Kaufmanniana—(The Water-lily Tulip)—Water-lily formed flowers of cream heavily marked with earmine—3½-inch flowers on 6-inch stems—$1.25 dozen.
